Óleo is a boutique new development of 42 contemporary homes in Carvajal, Fuengirola, positioned on a peaceful hillside between Fuengirola and Benalmádena, just steps from the sea. From this privileged setting, the horizon opens like a canvas of water and sky, delivering open views, natural light, and a calmer rhythm of living.

Designed as a private, lifestyle led community, Óleo pairs elegant architecture with Mediterranean gardens and standout wellness spaces, creating an atmosphere that feels closer to a members club than a typical residential building. Residences are planned around comfort and flow, with large interiors, spacious terraces, and bright living spaces connected to the coastal landscape.

The location is a major highlight. Alongside quick access to the promenade, train station and Málaga airport, Óleo also features a custom panoramic lift that connects the community with the beach and some of the area's best restaurants, enhancing day-to-day convenience while keeping the setting quiet and residential. Completion is scheduled for Q4 2028.
